Yawning at God's Goodness

In the last day, most of us have

- Used a device the size of a graham cracker to send messages and pictures or make voice or video calls to people miles away from us
- Watched a program that was being broadcast via satellites orbiting the planet
- Driven somewhere at speeds as high as 75 miles per hour
- Washed our hands with hot water available on demand in an instant
- Stored food in temperature controlled cabinets that keep our meats and dairy products chilled or even frozen

In other words... We used the phone, watched tv, drove a car, used the sink, and used the fridge. So what?

That's the craziest part of all—that we didn't think twice about any of it.

Any one of these things would blow the minds of the overwhelming majority of humans who have ever lived. For us, it's all commonplace. That's just how the human mind works. That which we repeatedly see quickly becomes taken for granted.

With all that in mind, read Romans 8:1 again:

"Therefore there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus."

If you've been a Christian for any amount of time, you've probably read and heard that one countless times. It's easy to let our eyes pass over it and take it as just as mundane as a video chat with somebody across the planet.

But just because we're used to it, it doesn't make it ordinary or boring. And though it's hard to be hit with the same truth just as heavily the 100th time you hear it as you were the first time, it's important not to ever take it for granted.

We were condemned, bound for eternity in hell. Even worse, we had no ability to escape condemnation. And, we would still be condemned, except for one factor. We are now in Christ, who turned the tables by condemning sin instead (8:3).

You've heard this. You know this. But don't ever let yourself take it for granted.

GREEK WORD STUDY

Greek: κατάκριμα
Noun, Neuter, Singular

Transliteration:

katakrima - Judicial sentence of condemnation;

Greek Word in Romans 8:1

1. Definition of κατάκριμα (katakrima)

Lexical Meaning:

- A sentence of condemnation
- The result of judgment
- A penal servitude or penalty imposed after judgment
- is not simply about feeling forgiven, but about being declared righteous by God in a legal and eternal sense. It's the foundation of assurance in the Gospel.

2. Occurrences in the New Testament

The noun katakrima only occurs 3 times, all in Romans:

Romans 5:16 "Judgment followed one sin and brought condemnation..."

Romans 5:18 "...one trespass resulted in condemnation for all men..."

Romans 8:1 "There is therefore now no condemnation..."

This limited usage shows that Paul uses this word with precise theological meaning—it's judicial, final, and heavy.

3. Root Verb: κατακρίνω (katakrinō)

This verb means:

- To pronounce guilty
- To sentence someone
- To pass judgment and assign punishment

Used in places like:

- Matthew 12:41: "The men of Nineveh will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it."
- Mark 14:64: "They all condemned him as deserving death."

God, who is clothed in majesty, yet who stepped into humanity, who gently stooped and condescended so you could look us eye to eye;

God, who wasn't too far removed to feel a heart beating in your chest and sweat on your brow, who left majestic robes to put on deep brown skin that burned, and cracked, and shed,

Would you show us better ways of being human, of occupying our own skin and bones in a way that embraces all that we are, but that leaves room for all that we can be.

The Good Father

God, in His infinite wisdom, designed and created the family structure long ago. He placed man, who was created first, as the head of the family. Even though societies and cultures attempt to normalize distortions of what defines a family, God's plan is always the best. To assure that families are successful, the Lord has given instructions and examples throughout the Scriptures. The good father will wisely refer to the pages of the inspired word for guidance as he leads his family down the correct path ending in the salvation of his loved ones.

Here is just a sample of what godly fathers do in accordance with God's word:

- Seek the Lord's Guidance in Bringing Up Children (Judges 13:8)
- Commend Their Children to Walk with the Lord (1 Kings 2:1-9)
- Show Compassion Towards Their Children (Psalm 103:13)
- Show Love through Discipline (Proverbs 3:11-12)
- Forgive Their Children's Shortcomings (Ephesians 4:32)
- Share With Them Words of Wisdom (Proverbs 4:1-10)
- Pray for the Success of Their Children (1 Chronicles 29:19)
- Leave an Inheritance for Their Children (Proverbs 13:22)
- Show an Example of Integrity (Proverbs 20:7)
- Encourage Children to Walk Worthy of God (1 Thes. 2:11-12)
- Share the Warnings of the Lord (Ephesians 6:4)
- Teach Their Children Christian Behavior (Romans 12:9-21)
- Teach Them to Love Jesus and Keep His Commands (John 14:15)
- Teach the Gospel Plan of Salvation (Mark 16:16; Rom. 10:9; Acts 2:38)
- Encourage Children to be Faithful for a Lifetime (Rev. 2:10b)
